PRESS RELEASE

SHIPTON ADDRESSES A RUSI CONFERENCE

The long term response to the domestic threat of terrorism was the theme of the presentation made by Sidney L Shipton OBE, Co-ordinator of the Three Faiths Forum at the conference of the Royal United Service Institute for defence and security held at their head quarters in Whitehall on the 14th and 15th February 2007.

Under the title of 'Politics and Terrorism' the Homeland Security and Resilience Department's two day conference heard of the work of the Three Faiths Forum in considerable detail.

"The Three Faiths Forum is celebrating its 10th anniversary this year, but there was still a long way to go". The basic purpose of the Three Faiths Forum is the necessity for there to be dialogue and discussion between Muslims, Christians and Jews leading to respect and mutual understanding at all levels.
