Shipton Speaks at the Multifaith Centre University of Derby

"Multifaith activity is on the increase" said Sidney Shipton OBE, Co-ordinator of the Three Faiths Forum, Muslim-Christian-Jewish dialogue, when he spoke at the Multifaith Centre at the University of Derby on Thursday 6th April 2006.

"But the basis upon which the three Abrahamic monotheistic faiths are brought together by the Three Faiths Forum is first that they have a common ancestry in Abraham and the Hebrew Scriptures and secondly because they can act as a catalyst within the wider ranges of interfaith activity"

The three faiths he continued can also face problems such as Islamophobia and anti-Semitism together and act together to counteract those who promote such evil doctrines.

Shipton congratulated the Multi faith Centre on its facilities and its excellent work. The book it produces regularly with the Inter Faith Network is an essential tool in our endeavours he concluded.
